Are you studying Japanese? Have any interest in living abroad and possibly pursuing a career as an ESL or EFL teacher? Then come to beautiful Sasebo, Japan. Nagasaki Junior College (NJC) and Guy Healy, Japan have partnered to bring you International Village Study Abroad (IVSA) and Japanese Language & Culture Program (JLCP). They are one-of-a-kind full immersion programs where you will have the opportunity to live as a student in Japan, meet students from all over the world, and make life-long friends.

The IVSA program provides a full undergrad semester course load consisting of extensive Japanese language and culture classes, International Leadership, and a well-balanced TEFL course consisting of theory classes and a broad range of hands-on English teaching experiences. Students meeting all the practical teaching requirements will receive a TEFL certificate. If you are interested in earning credits towards your undergrad degree, or have any questions please contact us for more details.

The Japanese Language and Culture Program (JLCP) is another option that may appeal to students wishing to focus primarily on studying Japanese and Japanese culture. Also, We are happy to help set up internships for students wishing to carry a full course load. We can help arrange a wide variety of internships for students with various interests and career goals. Please contact us for more details.
